

New American Cursive Penmanship Contest

Entry Deadline: April 10th

If your students would like to enter the NAC Penmanship contest, you may want them to practice a few times before completing their entries. The handwriting should be natural and relaxed.

Instructions:

Each entry needs to be written on 8 ½ x 11 white paper and may be completed with pen or pencil. Philippians 4:8 or The Pledge of Allegiance can be used (but not required) for the handwriting sample.

Contest rules

1. This contest is open to students who are using The New American Cursive alphabet.
2. Entries must have the student's name; address or school on the back of the page and their age, grade and gender is to be written on the front of the page.
3. Three handwriting specialists will judge the entries submitted. They will score handwritings on legibility, shape, slant, spacing, size and fluidity. Entries will be judged by grade level. There will be a boy and girl winner from each grade. Include a method of winner notification, i.e. email address, phone number, mailing address, etc.
4. Entries need to be postmarked by April 10th.
